STAT

During the absence of Mr. Dulles, I should like to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of 16 September concerning your visit to Washington during the period 25 to 26 September.

Mr. Dulles is not expected back until about 25 September and, in view of his very busy schedule when he returns, it is regretted that he will be unable to see you at this time. However, we appreciate your taking the time out to write to us.

Sincerely,

Assistant to the Director
